“Working Together For Success”

HRH Labor Services provides temporary Non-Skilled workers to clients in the surrounding Metropolitan areas for short term or long-term positions.

HRH Labor Services uses E-Verify to ensure a trusted relationship. A background check or drug testing is also available at a client's request.

HRH Labor services provides each client with a two hour guarantee. If the worker is not meeting your standards; our company will not charge the client and can refill the job order at the clients request.

Each position requires a four hour assignment. A two hour cancellation is required on all job assignments or the client will be charged a "two-hour" show-up fee.

If the position or applicant requires training prior to starting, our expert staff can help facilitate the instruction and necessary preparation as long as your business offers a form of video or powerpoint presentation required for your specific needs.

Our goal isn't just to provide your company with an worker; our goal is to provide our clients with an employee who will be able to fill your needs and meet your standards with their performance.

Hiring policy for HRH Labor Services is as follows:

We require temporary workers to work a 90 day period through our company in order to ensure that the candidate is the perfect worker for your establishment. As a courtesy after 90 day period, there is no fee to the client to hire that individual.

Workers compensation is included is included in the bill rate. Unemployment fees, taxes and fees for the temporary workers payroll is deducted through HRH Labor Services.

Invoices are generated every Friday and can be emailed, faxed and mailed to clients. HRH Labor Services is on a 15 day net payment for services provided.

Please call Marta at the office for any additional information you may have or to make an appointment.

Respectfully,

Marta Lydia Foust
